GREETINGS FROM THE GOVERNOR

February 8, 2019

Dear Friends:

It is my pleasure to write this letter and welcome you to the Eighth Annual Chinese New Year in the Desert celebration.

We extend warm wishes to our local, national, and international communities as we all come together and celebrate the year of the Pig. Thank you to those individuals that have made this special event possible through your hard work and dedication.

Since 2012, the Chinese New Year in the Desert celebration has shared the holiday traditions through partnerships with businesses, community organizations, and our thriving tourism industry. Nevada continues to benefit from a growing and diverse population and this occasion is a great example of how citizens from all backgrounds are able to gather together and enjoy traditions and cultures brought to our State from abroad.

I appreciate the opportunity to join you in ushering in the year of the Pig and wish each and everyone of you a prosperous Lunar New Year.

Sincere Regards,
